Chapter 1 by Maddiepuppy5

Hello I am Serine, I have problems with the world. Some people call it worrying to much. For instant we have global warming. Global warming is horrifying. I mean, Antarctica could possibly die, well not die. The ice glaciers are dying, which means all the cute little animals could die and that would be horrible! Oh, I'm sorry, I got carried away. In school we were talking about Killer Whales. I think the name says enough, but eating cute seals is just evil! See, like I said, I have problems with the world.
